

THE AMADOR RECORD.

Established November 1, 1855.

JACKSON, AMADOR COUNTY, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 1902.

Ten Cents Per Copy.

OFFICIAL DIRECTORY OF AMADOR COUNTY.

State Senator. Hon. John F. Davis
Assemblyman. Hon. Fred L. Stewart
County Clerk and Auditor. C. L. Culbert
Deputy County Clerk. B. R. Brees
Deputy Assessor. George F. Mack
Deputy Sheriff. J. D. Patterson
Recorder. R. M. L. Kerr
Assessor. John Marchant
Deputy Assessor. George F. Mack
Superintendent of Schools. Geo. A. Gordon
Coroner and Administrator. Geo. A. Gritton
County Surveyor. W. E. Downs
County Physician. Dr. A. M. Gail
Steward of County Hospital. C. A. Barrett

SUPERVISORS.
Township One. C. Newman
Township Two. W. M. Amick
Township Three. A. B. McLaughlin
Township Four. E. B. Moore
Township Five. Fred B. LeMoin

The regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors is held on the first Monday of each month.
Fred B. LeMoin, Chairman.

TOWNSHIP OFFICERS.
TOWNSHIP ONE.
Justice of the Peace. H. Goldner
Constable. H. E. Kay
TOWNSHIP TWO.
Justice of the Peace. James McCauley
Constable. J. E. Kelley
TOWNSHIP THREE.
Justice of the Peace. A. W. Robinson
Constable. James Lesley
TOWNSHIP FOUR.
Justice of the Peace. J. H. Giles
Constable. D. F. Gray
TOWNSHIP FIVE.
Justice of the Peace. J. B. Blower
Constable. William Scoble

AN UGLY TIE.
Duprez, the great but ill favored French tenor, was once walking from the Grand Opera House in Paris with the baritone Barolliet, who was not an Apollo either. They happened to meet Perrot, the dancer, a man of very great ability, but short and thin and so ugly that a manager once said he could never engage Perrot unless for the Jardin des Plantes (zoological gardens), as he engaged no monkeys.

Perrot told them the story, and when Duprez laughed at him, Perrot said: "Why, surely you need not laugh. If I am ugly, I am certainly not so ugly as either of you."

"You monkey," said Duprez, "this difference shall soon be settled." And, seeing a stranger pass who appeared to be a gentleman, "Monsieur," said he, "will you be so good as to arbitrate in a little difference of opinion between us?"

"With pleasure," said the stranger, "if I can."

"Well," said Duprez, "just look at us and say whom you consider to be the ugliest of the three."

The gentleman looked for some time from one to the other and then said: "Gentlemen, I give it up. I cannot possibly decide," and went away roaring with laughter.

His Mission.
A lawyer was passing along a late street carrying under his arm a law book when he was accosted by a self righteous individual: "Ha, Mr. Blank! And where are you going to preach to-day?"

"I don't preach, I practice," replied the lawyer.

What Was Wanted.
"Please, I want a penworth of—er—er—I want—er—er—"

"Have you forgotten what you came for?"

"Yes; that's what I want."

"What?"

"Campbort."—Moonshine.

Baby's Need.
Mamma—We must get a nurse for the baby.
Papa—Nurse nothing! What he needs is a night watchman.—Exchange.

Long and Short Hair.

Homor wrote of the long haired Greeks by way of honorable distinction. Subsequently the Athenian cavalry and all Lacedaemonian soldiery wore long hair. The Parthians and ancient Persians were long, flowing hair. The Franks and ancient Teutons considered long hair a mark of high birth. The Goths looked on long hair as a mark of honor and on short hair as a mark of thralldom. So did the Gauls, for which reason Julius Caesar, when he subdued them, obliged them to cut their hair short in token of submission.

In England judges, the speaker of the house of commons and at one time the bishops wore long hair, while criminals and paupers wore short hair. On the other hand, Jewish priests during their time of service had their hair cut once a fortnight, and Roman slaves wore their hair and beard long, but shaved their heads when manumitted.

Sailors who escaped from shipwreck shaved their heads as if manumitted from the sea. In Ezekiel v. 1, there is mention of a "barber's razor," with instructions to "thou, son of man, take thee a barber's razor and cause it to pass upon thine head and upon thy beard."

Poetry and Hogs.
This particular practical wife looks like a dream, but she is right up to the mark in business. One day just as the frost was on the pumpkin he came in. "Darling," he began, "I have just been thinking this is a most memorable day in our lives, both yours and mine. Do you know what it recalls?"

"No," she declared.

"What! Not remember this particular date?" he asked in horror and reproach. "Oh, surely you must."

She said again that she didn't, though to oblige him she would if she could, and he bowed his head and looked sorrowfully out of the window at the swaying trees loaded with red leaves.

"Don't say it!" he exclaimed. "Don't tell me you have no recollection of the serious import of this day. Think! See how I am impressed by the recollection. Surely you recall it?"

A dawning light spread over her face. "I believe I do," she cried joyously. "Yes, it was just this time we killed hogs last fall."

He gave a hollow groan and left the room of his too, too practical wife. It was their wedding anniversary.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

The Good Bargain.
Sheridan, the celebrated playwright, who was no sportsman, having gone one day on a shooting excursion, everything fell before him and his gun, despite his effort to secure something for his bag. On his return home with an empty bag he saw a man, apparently a farmer, looking at a flock of ducks in a pool.

"What will you take," said Sheridan, "for a shot at those ducks?"

The man looked at him with astonishment.

"Will half a crown do it?"

The man nodded and Sheridan gave him the half crown, taking his shot at the ducks. About half a dozen fell dead. As he was preparing to bag them he said to the man: "I think on the whole I made a good bargain with you."

"Why," said the man, "they're none of mine."

"For Ways That Are Dark," Etc.

"Some years ago," says the advertising agent of a tobacco firm quoted by the Philadelphia Record, "I wished to introduce among the Chinese a two for five cigar that my people were heavily interested in, and I decided to draw up a little card extolling this cigar in Chinese characters."

"I sought out Lo Hen Wong in San Francisco, a very intelligent fellow, and got him to write me a few sentences in praise of my article. I had what he wrote lithographed and distributed the cards by thousands in all the Chinatowns of the United States. They were inscribed with a picture of the cigar, and below were the words: 'Smoke this cigar. It is the best on the market, and two for five is its price.'"

"That, at least, is what I thought was the meaning of the Chinese characters. I found out, some six months later, my mistake. The words Lo Hen Wong had written and which I had had lithographed were: 'Don't smoke this cigar. It is not good. But the Gong company's cigarettes, for sale in every Chinatown at 3 cents a package, are excellent.'"

"Lo Hen Wong had got $10 from me for his work, and I don't know how much he got from the Gong company. We distributed many thousands of the cards before we got on to the trick that had been played on us."

Old Names in London.
If London street names are not always what they seem, the names of the great parishes usually are. Take Lambeth, for instance. That vast district has retained its name practically unaltered since the days of Edward the Confessor, who granted a charter in which it is styled Lambeth. Some illiterate scribe, who helped in the making of "Domesday," did, indeed, make an effort to obliterate its real name by calling it Lancheth, but his efforts were, fortunately, in vain. William Rufus in another charter named it Lambeth, since when it has kept its title unaltered.

In the old days Lambeth (from lithe, a haven) was the great river port where agricultural produce was ferried across the Thames to the more populous county opposite. There are still many "hithes" left us, such as Queenhithe and Rotherhithe, and, although their original functions have gone, there still remains a shadow to remind us of their departed glory.—London Chronicle.

How to Make Chop Suey.
For those who like who think they would like the famous Chinese dish chop suey, the following recipe, which any intelligent housewife can follow, was given by W. E. S. Fates, for several years vice consul at Amoy:

"For four persons two chickens' livers, two chickens' gizzards, one pound young, clean pork cut into small pieces, half an ounce of green root ginger and two stalks of celery. Sauté this in a frying pan over a hot fire, adding four tablespoonsful of olive oil, one table-spoonful of soy sauce, half a cupful of boiling water, one teaspoonful of Worcester's sauce, half a teaspoonful of salt, black and red pepper to taste and a dash of cloves and cinnamon. When nearly done, add a small can of mushrooms, half a cupful of dried bean sprouts or French green peas or string beans chopped fine or asparagus tips. The see-yu sauce which is eaten with this delectable dish can be procured at any Chinese grocery."

Be Prepared.
Daniel Webster once told a friend that his great speech in reply to Hayne, which is the high water mark of modern eloquence, but which at the time was supposed to have been delivered without preparation, had been substantially prepared long before.

When called upon suddenly to reply to the fiery Garrison's attack, which so alarmed the New Englanders at the capital, he was entirely at ease and ready for the fray, for, as he said, he had "only to turn to his notes tucked away in a pigeon-hole," and refresh his recollection. "If Hayne," he said, "had tried to make a speech to fit my notes, he could not have hit them better. No man is inspired by the occasion. I never was."

Left and Right Limbs.
Physiologists and scientists in general have been making some curious experiments with a view to determine the relative length and strength of "right and left limbs." Fifty and nine-tenths per cent of the men examined had the right arm stronger than the left. 16.4 per cent had the two arms of equal length and strength, and 32.7 per cent had the left arm stronger than the right. Of women, 49.9 per cent had the right arm stronger than the left, and 24.5 per cent had the left stronger than the right.—London Family Doctor.

Where Smoking Is a Crime.
There is one country in the world where it is considered a crime to smoke. Abyssinia is the region, and the law forbidding tobacco dates from the year 1642. It was at first merely intended to prevent priests from smoking in the churches, but it was taken too literally, and nowadays even forgers have to be careful not to be seen smoking.

An Unusual Race.
An unusual race was advertised to be run at Ripon, in Yorkshire, in 1725: "The Lady's Plate, of £15 value, by any horse that was no more than five years old the last grass. Women to be the riders. Each to pay a guinea entrance. Three heats and twice round the common for a heat."

Ireland has 408 able-bodied persons to 1,000 inhabitants, Scotland 424 and England 432.

The hardest thing to find is an honest partner for a swindle.

Children Especially Liable.
Burns, bruises and cuts are extremely painful and if neglected often result in blood poisoning. Children are especially liable to such mishaps because not so careful. As a remedy DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve is unequalled. Draws out the fire, stops the pain, soon heals the wound. Beware of counterfeits. Sure cure for piles. "DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured my baby of eczema after two physicians had given her up," writes James Mock, N. Webster, Ind. "The sores were so bad she could not go to school for a day."—Kerr's Pharmacy, Jackson.

Examination Questions.

Amador County, December 1901.

GEOMETRY.
1. In an isosceles triangle the angles opposite the equal sides are equal.
2. The bisector of an isosceles triangle bisects the base, and is perpendicular to the base.
3. An angle formed by chords intersecting within the circumference is measured by one half of the sum of intersected arcs.
4. In a triangle ABC - A - B respectively are 37-deg. 13 min. 32 sec. and 41 deg. 17 min. 56 sec.
5. The sum of the squares of the two legs of a triangle is equal to square of the hypotenuse.
6. Base 6 - Altitude 8 - Hypotenuse what?
7. To construct a square equivalent to sum of two given squares.
8. A rhombus contains 100 sq. feet, the length of one diagonal is 10 feet, find the length of the other diagonal.
9. The area of a circle is equal to half product of radius by the circumference; prove.
10. The apothem of an inscribed regular hexagon is equal to half of the side of an inscribed equilateral triangle.

GRAMMAR.
1. Name two classes of substantives other than nouns; illustrate.
2. Name and illustrate two uses of the adjective in the sentence.
3. Decline the following: Child, enemy, France and good.
4. Compare full, good, little, straight and much.
5. Parse italicized words: All things in nature are beautiful types to the soul that reads them.
6. Write sentences showing the correct use of, agree with, die by, die of, differ with and disappointed in.
7. Give the peculiarities of have in respect to number and person. When a transitive verb is changed to a passive verb-phrase, what change takes place in its object?
8. Using the verb "choose," write the following sentences:
(a) Third per., plu., future perfect tense, indicative, progressive.
(b) First per., plu., past perfect tense, indicative, passive form.
(c) Third per., sing., present perfect tense, indicative, progressive.
(d) First per., sing., past tense, subjunctive.
(e) Second per., plu., future tense, indicative, progressive.
(f) First per., plu., past tense, ind., prog.
(g) First per., sing., present, ind., passive.
(h) Second per., plu., present, imp., imperative, simple.
(i) First per., plu., present perfect tense, indicative, simple form.
(j) Third per., sing., future perfect tense, indicative, simple form.

ORAL GRAMMAR.
1. In what modes are the potential verb-phrases used.
2. Name five classes of adverbs.
3. In what three ways is the nominative case of nouns used?
4. Define a relative pronoun; give example.
5. How is the possessive of pronouns formed? How is the possessive of nouns formed?

ORAL PHYSIOLOGY.
1. What vice presidents have succeeded to the first place by the death of a president?
2. When did the United States begin protective tariff?
3. Give principles of the four platforms of 1860.
4. Of the thirteen original colonies, which had charter governments? royal.
5. Why was Nathan Hale's death expected?

ORAL PHYSIOLOGY.
1. What is the nature of disease, and how do drugs restore health?
2. Give specific directions regarding the care of the teeth.
3. Give the evil effects of mouth breathing, and what is the effect when the amount of oxygen is diminished?
4. What is the natural temperature of the body, and tell how heat is distributed.
5. Into what two great classes are the nerves of the body divided?

ORAL METHODS.
1. What methods would you apply in teaching reading to a class of beginners?
2. Tell how you would develop with a class of beginners the idea that letters represent certain sounds.
3. How often per day and how long at a time should a chart class recite reading?
4. Of what value to the individual is the study of the various branches to be taught?
5. Are recesses of value to the pupil? Why?

WRITTEN PHYSIOLOGY.
1. Describe the process of respiration, and tell the difference between inspired and expired air.
2. Describe the two main cavities of the body, and by what are they separated?
3. Explain hunger, appetite, headache, peristalsis and assimilation.
4. How is digested food diffused into the blood?
5. What effect has alcohol upon these organs: mouth, liver, brain, intestines, stomach?
6. Describe the heart—its situation, pericardium, cavities and valves.

7. Describe the pulmonary circulation.
8. Describe the skin. Of what use is it as an organ of excretion?
9. Describe the sympathetic nervous system—ganglia, nerves, plexus and its connection with the spinal chord.
10. Draw a diagram showing the parts of the eye; name the parts.

ORAL GEOGRAPHY.
1. What gives direction to trade winds.
3. What is meant by Mt. Diablo base and meridian?
3. What are alluvial plains and how formed?
4. What fixes the boundaries of the zones?
5. Locate the great Eurasian axis.

WORD ANALYSIS.
1. Define etymology. What is a derivative word?
2. Write rule for final "v" followed by a vowel; final "y" preceded by a consonant; give examples of each.
3. Classify the following words with respect to origin and composition: Large, friendly, watch-key, music-teach, musician.
4. Define the following Latin prefixes and form derivatives from them: inter, extra, retro, se, ob.
5. Define the following Latin suffixes and form derivative words from them: ac, al, eer, ent, ish.
6. Analyse and define the following: agile, amiable, discord, credible, dignify, illiterate, temporary, and finite.
7. Give synonyms of act, amicable, dilute, temporary, and finite.
8. Name five English prefixes.
9. Name and define the root from which each of the following words is derived: Vocalize, verify, extend, construct, negative.
10. Define the following Greek roots: chronos, hudor, philos, sthenos, skopein.

LITERATURE.
1. Who wrote the "Man with a Hoe"? What inspired it?
2. Give a character sketch of the schoolmaster in "Snowbound," or of the blacksmith in "Evangeline."
3. What characterized the age of Milton? What style predominated in his writings?
4. Give five authors of the present time and a work of each.
5. Mention some of the best known writings of Sir Walter Scott. Upon what are they founded, and what use has been made of them aside from their literary value?

GRAMMAR.
1. Name two classes of substantives other than nouns; illustrate.
2. Name and illustrate two uses of the adjective in the sentence.
3. Decline the following: Child, enemy, France and good.
4. Compare full, good, little, straight and much.
5. Parse italicized words: All things in nature are beautiful types to the soul that reads them.
6. Write sentences showing the correct use of, agree with, die by, die of, differ with and disappointed in.
7. Give the peculiarities of have in respect to number and person. When a transitive verb is changed to a passive verb-phrase, what change takes place in its object?
8. Using the verb "choose," write the following sentences:
(a) Third per., plu., future perfect tense, indicative, progressive.
(b) First per., plu., past perfect tense, indicative, passive form.
(c) Third per., sing., present perfect tense, indicative, progressive.
(d) First per., sing., past tense, subjunctive.
(e) Second per., plu., future tense, indicative, progressive.
(f) First per., plu., past tense, ind., prog.
(g) First per., sing., present, ind., passive.
(h) Second per., plu., present, imp., imperative, simple.
(i) First per., plu., present perfect tense, indicative, simple form.
(j) Third per., sing., future perfect tense, indicative, simple form.

ORAL GRAMMAR.
1. In what modes are the potential verb-phrases used.
2. Name five classes of adverbs.
3. In what three ways is the nominative case of nouns used?
4. Define a relative pronoun; give example.
5. How is the possessive of pronouns formed? How is the possessive of nouns formed?

ORAL PHYSIOLOGY.
1. What vice presidents have succeeded to the first place by the death of a president?
2. When did the United States begin protective tariff?
3. Give principles of the four platforms of 1860.
4. Of the thirteen original colonies, which had charter governments? royal.
5. Why was Nathan Hale's death expected?

ORAL PHYSIOLOGY.
1. What is the nature of disease, and how do drugs restore health?
2. Give specific directions regarding the care of the teeth.
3. Give the evil effects of mouth breathing, and what is the effect when the amount of oxygen is diminished?
4. What is the natural temperature of the body, and tell how heat is distributed.
5. Into what two great classes are the nerves of the body divided?

ORAL METHODS.
1. What methods would you apply in teaching reading to a class of beginners?
2. Tell how you would develop with a class of beginners the idea that letters represent certain sounds.
3. How often per day and how long at a time should a chart class recite reading?
4. Of what value to the individual is the study of the various branches to be taught?
5. Are recesses of value to the pupil? Why?

WRITTEN PHYSIOLOGY.
1. Describe the process of respiration, and tell the difference between inspired and expired air.
2. Describe the two main cavities of the body, and by what are they separated?
3. Explain hunger, appetite, headache, peristalsis and assimilation.
4. How is digested food diffused into the blood?
5. What effect has alcohol upon these organs: mouth, liver, brain, intestines, stomach?
6. Describe the heart—its situation, pericardium, cavities and valves.

The pen is mightier than the sword. Physical and moral courage. Love of nature. Earnestness as an element of success.

METHODS OF TEACHING.
1. What faculties of the beginner should be primarily considered by the teachers?
2. To what extent should a teacher criticize the written production of a fourth or fifth grade scholar?
3. What would you do in arithmetic or number work for the first three years of the primary pupil's school life with the pupil?
4. Of what use would you make of the knowledge that the beginner possesses?
5. Give five characteristics that a teacher should have.

CIVICS.
1. What are the duties of grand juries? What are the duties of petit juries?
2. What is an embargo-act, and why should congress alone control such acts?
3. By the authority of what clause in the constitution did congress [a] establish a military academy at West Point. b. Vote millions of dollars for pensions. c. Order court surveys.
4. When nations disagree, in what three ways may their differences be settled?
5. Show how the people of the United States are subordinate to the constitution and yet subordinate to it.
6. What is the difference between a civil and a criminal action?
7. The presiding officer of the United States senate can vote only in case of a tie; the speaker of the house of representatives is elected by a vote on all questions coming before the house; give reasons for this distinction.
8. Has the government a right to take a person's property? Give reasons for your answer.
9. What are the personal rights of a citizen?

10. Explain the difference between indictment and conviction.
DRAWING.
1. What is (a) constructive drawing? (b) representative drawing; (c) decorative drawing.
2. Upon what two important things does the appearance of an object depend?
3. Draw a leaf and conventionalize the same.
4. Draw five vertical lines to show how five groups of equal length and at equal distances apart would look as they are seen from the left side of a street when you look down the street.

5. Represent a waste paper basket; position in front and below the eyes.
SCHOOL LAW.
1. What grade of certificate may a county board of education grant upon examination, and what grade of school may be taught holding the same?
2. What certificates may a county board of education grant on credentials?
3. What books may be purchased for a school library?
4. For what and for what only may the state and the county funds of a district be drawn upon to pay for from the last of July until the close of an eight months' term of school?
5. How much does the law say a district shall receive by apportionment upon the basis of teachers each school year?

PENMANSHIP.
State how one should hold his pen, and how he should sit when writing, and give three features that characterize good writing.
Your penmanship will be graded on your writing of the above.
The applicant will be required to give the signature and read the piece of music that will be selected by a member of the board.
Upon his ability to do what is required in the above he will be graded in music.

MUSIC.
1. Describe the Hindoos. Did they materially influence history? Give reasons for your answer.
2. In what country did European history. Contrast eastern and western civilization.
3. What was the (a) Dorian migration? (b) Dacian code? (c) What does the latter show?
4. Give cause and effect of the Persian war.
5. Describe the retreat of the Ten Thousand. Who were the Thirty Tyrants?
6. What was the "era of migrations"? Describe the changes which had taken place during this time.
7. What important event took place during the Augustan age? What traits characterize Augustus?
8. What caused the downfall of the Romans? During what time were Rome's palmist days?

UNITED STATES HISTORY.
1. What were the first banking experiments under the federal government?
2. Explain the expression "Sixteen to one."
3. Who were the Pilgrims? the Puritans? the Quakers?
4. What is the origin and effect of trusts?
5. What grounds did whigs have for resentment against President Tyler? What duties may be made for him?
6. What change in counting representation was made by the fourteenth amendment?
7. What territory did Mexico lose by the independence of Texas?
8. Describe the Bear flag affair.
9. Divide our history into periods with respect to our tariff laws.
10. Describe the battle of Bennington and the battle of the Wilderness.

BOOKKEEPING.
Make out complete set in day book, cash book, bank book and ledger; balance and make out a statement:
June 1, 1890. Student commenced with cash $800; a note of J. S. Preston for $500; and an account against Orra J. Traber of $125. Student owes Cyrus Gaddis, on acc., $85. 2—Deposited $925 in Garden City Bank. Bought of Holland & Co. a bill of mds $800, gave them a check on Garden City Bank for $500, balance on acc. Received an order from James Preston on Cyrus Gaddis for $200, to apply on Preston's note. Sold Wm. Pettit a bill of mds $200, and received cash, $100, balance on acc. Gave Cyrus Gaddis a check on G. C. Bank for $60. 3—Deposited $325 in G. C. Bank. Sold Chas. Smartman a bill of mds, $210, and received a check for $100, balance on acc. Bought a bill of mds, of Clyde Ray, $300, gave him our note for $200, and a check on G. C. Bank for balance. Smartman has failed, and we have received 20 per cent of amount due us in cash. 4—Took an inventory and found mds. on hand $700.

COMPOSITION.
Write a composition of at least forty lines on any one of the following subjects:
The assassination of President McKinley.
My ideas of a noble character.

9. What was the temple of Janus? How many times during Roman history was it closed?
10. How did Rameses II and Assurbanipal resemble each other?

MEDIEVAL HISTORY.
1. Describe the life of Joan of Arc.
2. Give cause and results of the Wars of the Roses.
3. For what two things in English history is the 13th century memorable?
4. Tell about the conquest of Ireland, Scotland and Wales.
5. Briefly tell about the Crusades. Give principal effects of the Crusades.
6. Describe Italy during the tenth century.
7. Give a short account of the battle of Morgarten. What was the effect of this battle?
8. Describe the Norman conquest, and give its effect upon history.
9. Tell about Charlemagne's form of government; was it a successful one?

10. Who were the following: The Silent One, the Lost Dauphin, the Citizen King, Queen Bess, the Best of the Georges?
(Continued next week)

Did He Understand?
A well known Edinburgh professor often became so interested in his subject that when the noon bell rang he seemed quite oblivious of the fact and kept the class for several minutes. Certain restless spirits among the students decided to give him a gentle hint, so they bought an alarm clock. London Tit-Bits tells the result.

The clock, set to alarm at precisely 12 o'clock, was placed on the professor's desk. As was anticipated, he began his lecture without observing the clock. But when the noon hour struck the alarm went off with a startling crash.

Even those not in the secret appreciated the joke. There was a round of applause. The professor smilingly waited until the alarm and the applause ceased and then said: "Young gentlemen, I thank you for this gift. I had forgotten it was my birthday. An alarm clock is something my wife has needed for my servant for a long time. It is a very kind remembrance on your part." Then he went on with the demonstration which had been interrupted by the alarm, and the students were never quite able to satisfy themselves whether the professor understood the joke or not.

One Boy's Loyalty.
A New York boy was at school in Canada, and it was his first day in class. The geography lesson was called, and it was his turn to answer. "Which is the largest city in the world?" asked the teacher. "New York," unhesitatingly came the answer.

"I mean the largest city in the world," said the teacher.

As promptly came the reply, "New York."

"But," expostulated the teacher, "I did not say the largest city in the United States, but the largest city in the world. You surely know which is the largest city in the world."

"New York," persisted the boy.

"London has a larger population than New York," said the teacher. "If I do not have the correct answer this time, I shall have to punish you. Come now," coaxingly, "tell me the name of the largest city in the world."

"New York."

"Stay in during recess and write me fifty lines."

He wrote the fifty lines, and every line read: "The biggest city in the world is New York."—New York Tribune.

Praying and Prinking.
Sam Jones, the revivalist, was once taking women to task for spending more time in prinking than in praying. "If there's a woman here," he screamed finally, "who prays more than she prinks, let her stand up."

One poor old faded specimen of femininity in the sorriest, shabbiest of clothes arose.

"You spend more time praying than prinking?" asked the preacher, taking her all.

The poor old creature said she did pray all the time, prinked none at all.

"You go straight home," admonished Jones, "and put a little time on your prinking."

Turner's Toast.
Turner, the painter was ready wit. Once at a dinner of artists and literary men a minor poet, by way of being facetious, proposed as a toast "the health of the painters and glaziers of Great Britain."

The toast was drunk, and Turner, after returning thanks for it, proposed "the health of the British paper stainers."

The laugh was turned against the poet.

Ungrateful.
A Marysville schoolma'am was teaching her class the mysteries of grammar.

"Now, Johnny," said she, "in what tense do I speak when I say, 'I am thankful?'"

The little fellow answered quick as a wink, "The past."—Kansas City Journal.

The Other Way.
Teacher—I would like some one in the class to define the meaning of vice versa.

Bright Boy—It's sleeping with your feet toward the head of the bed.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh that Contain Mercury.
as mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is ten fold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, Ohio, by F. J. Cheney & Co. Testimonials free.

Sold by Druggists, price 75c per bottle.

Hall's Family Pills are the best.

HOME AND CHILD

Does your horse "feel his oats"? What a difference between the grain-fed and the grass-fed horse! The first strong and full of ginger, the second flabby, weak and tired out before he begins. The feeding makes the difference.

Children are not alike either. One is rosy, bright-eyed, full of life and laughter, another is pale, weak and dull. The feeding again is responsible.

Sickly children need special feeding. They don't "feel their oats". Scott's Emulsion adds just the right richness to their diet. It is like grain to the horse. The child gets new appetite and strong digestion.

THE AMADOR LEDGER

(COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER.)

Published Fridays by

Amador County Publishing Co.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES:
One year (in advance).....	$2.50
One year (if not in advance).....	3.00
Six months.....	1.50
Three months.....	.75
One or more copies, each.....	.10
Legal advertising—per sq. in. insertion.....	$1.00
Subsequent insertions—per square each.....	.50

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JACKSON AS SECOND-CLASS MATTER.

R. WEBB Editor and Manager

FRIDAY, JANUARY 31, 1902

THE MOUSE HATH LABORED.

Our wrought-up cotemporary has just discovered that the individual that steps out of his way to stir up a hornet's nest is apt to get stung. Usually that sort of knowledge dawns upon the understanding at a very tender age. But he is out of the ordinary run, and hence this very necessary chunk of wisdom has overtaken him late in life. He is now turning round and kicking himself for not finding out 'where he was at' sooner. That in itself is a healthy sign. If he would only stick to that occupation for awhile, to the exclusion of all other business, he might get along fairly well. But he sadly errs when he thinks he can accomplish great things in the stinging line himself. He has been trying on a small scale at intervals from the time he condescended to grace Amador county with his all-important presence, but the objects of his venom were content to pay little heed to the squirting of his toy guns. They did far more execution to the man behind than the man in front. Finally, when patience ceased to be a virtue, he got a broadside that broke him all up, inasmuch as it opened his eyes to the fact—that to everybody but himself—that he was about the most vulnerable practice target hereabouts himself. What was particularly hard on him was that he got no sympathy even in the house of his friends. The universal verdict was that he got just what he had been unwittingly hankering after for lo, these many moons. In the anguish of his wounded spirit he tries to sting back. It may be a waste of valuable breath on our part to inform him that he is not a success in that line. His come-back lacks the one essential ingredient—truth. That may be a very small defect to him and his little coterie of prompters, who wisely keep in the shadows, but the people of Amador county are not so depraved. Here is the Dispatch's style of reading history backwards:

"It is not the policy of the Ledger to resort to offensive personalities," etc. If that is so, why was Richard Webb cowed on the streets of Jackson some years ago?

Such a scene never occurred. He was attacked in the express office, but not hurt in the least. What for? For doing that which the editor of the Dispatch has never been guilty of—and is never likely to be guilty of—exposing the looting of an estate in probate. For moving in a similar path he has been imprisoned and harassed in various ways, but has not the slightest reason to feel ashamed of the part he took in any of these episodes, and that is more than can be said of some of the Dispatch man's political friends. But here is the gem of gems from our cotemporary biographical scrap-book:

He (our discredited brother editor) has never attempted to enter the ministry and been rejected. That simply paralyzes us. It is the first intimation we have ever had that we have made a failure of anything we ever undertook in earnest. The insurance carries us back over 40 years into the past, when this small-souled insinuator was an infant—and we were several years from adult age, and separated by ten thousand miles of ocean. We are not of the boasting kind, and have never referred to the struggles of boyhood days; but if it is any satisfaction to his mind we will inform him that we left school when twelve years old, was apprenticed at fourteen, was a preacher at sixteen. Without any aid whatever except that afforded by a mutual improvement class and the Sabbath school, we were accepted for the regular ministry as soon as our apprentice days were over, and before we were twenty years of age. We were then honored with a special tutor, and soon conceived the idea that we knew as much as he did, and promptly resigned. On a subsequent occasion we declined to accept that profession as a means of livelihood. The rest of the Dispatch insinuations are just as baseless. Bah! what is the use of lifting into notice one who seeks for notoriety by the deliberate circulation of lies.

DEPARTMENT OF MINES.

Congressman Woods is working hard in behalf of his bill for the establishment of a department of mines and mining. He is losing no opportunity to impress the necessity for the creation of such a department under a special cabinet officer, upon the public mind. The mining industry has grown to such proportions that it ought to be looked after as a distinct branch of the government. In an interview published in the Washington Star of January 10, one representative said:

"Why is a mining department necessary? Because mining has tremendous certainties. The value of our mineral products in 1880 was $369,319,000. In 1890 these products were valued at $619,512,173. In 1899 the value was $976,800,946. The figures for last year are not available, but I am in a position to say they will show our national mineral output has passed the billion-dollar mark.

[The exact figures for 1900 were $1,067,603,606, a gain of 9.85 per cent.—Ed.]

"As far as material import is concerned, these figures show the mining industry has risen to the dignity of a department of the federal government. Isn't this bill entitled to distinguished consideration? If it is not too tardy, then for other reasons. At first the average man associates mining department with precious metals. He forgets, if he ever knew, that the bituminous coal output in 1900 was valued at $167,934,304; the anthracite, $88,142,000; petroleum, $64,603,904; cement, $14,417,053; brick, clay, $14,250,000; stone, $44,736,576, and that the specified mineral products on the mineral output list of the geological survey number sixty-two. He forgets that with the facts already determined mining men and the mining authorities know full well mining in the United States territory is still, in a sense, in its infancy. He forgets that this billion-dollar industry is big enough to be taken out of its swaddling clothes.

"Thus far I have talked values. The human phase of the issue, the sentimental phase, if you will, still more nearly concerns the people. With the development of the mining industry, the number of working miners has increased proportionately, until today there are hundreds and hundreds of thousands of men working in mines and at mining plants. The interests of these men must be safeguarded, not in an indirect way, not through a department in which mining will figure as an incident along with the lightning service, marine hospital service, railroad commission, fish commission, bureau of foreign commerce, and similar branches of the public service. I know that great oaks from little acorns grow, and what is now the agricultural department was once a minor section of the patent office. But this knowledge does not tell me that the creation of the mining department should be delayed. Aside from its material and scientific value, the mining department is directly necessary to the welfare of working miners. New and complex problems are arising in the mining industry every day which should, indeed, must be judicially considered by men equipped for that purpose. The secretary of mines and mining must be a man with the quantity and quality of brain and the necessary experience to insure proper discharge of his very trying duties. No more socialist can record of commerce would not be fitted for the position of secretary of a department of mines and mining. This fact simply emphasizes the necessity of a department for mines and mining."

THE ONE ECHO SAYS, concerning bridge contracting in Amador county.

An exemplification of the difference between letting bridge building by private contract and by bids was noticed in the last proceedings of the board of supervisors. They let a contract for a 40-foot span steel bridge at Jackson for $1700. A couple of months previously the board gave an individual a contract to erect a 60-foot steel bridge at Carbondale for $1200. When the private contract was let a vigorous howl was heard, but not a cheep about the bid. Why this quietude?

Our cotemporary ought to be in a position to state the reason for the difference in price. It certainly is not due, as the above extract would lead one to infer, to any advantage of the private contract system over the system of competitive bids, which is the method recognized by law. The difference lies in the fact that the Carbondale bridge is the replacement of an old structure. The approaches and supports were already made. Whereas the Jackson bridge is an entirely new structure, with abutments and approaches to be built. That is a complete and satisfactory explanation of the difference in price. We are not an expert on the cost of bridge building, but if, as the Echo's article insinuates, the Carbondale bridge has the advantage by comparison, how is it that the contractor for that bridge was an unsuccessful bidder for the Jackson structure? The fact stands out that he secured a contract without competition, and he failed to secure a contract in the face of competition. There is no escape from the inference that the Jackson bridge, all things considered, is the cheaper of the two.

Alleged Infringement of Game Laws.

A neat little story of detective skill is reported from Sutter Creek. J. A. Davis, a stranger to these parts, but a state official whose business it is to see that the game laws of the state are enforced, struck our sister burg nearly a month ago. He kept his own counsel, at the same time made himself solid with the boys, especially the nimrods of the town, and they told him, in a recent report says, many things that had they known the mission of the stranger, they would doubtless have kept locked up within their own breasts the game laws. He was on a hunting expedition a week ago last Sunday, and invited the hunter from abroad to participate. He excused himself on some plea or other. They went their appointed way, and brought home as the trophy of the chase a lion, and other wild game. In the meantime, however, Davis had not been idle. He had dug up a deer hide or two from the premises of the hunters. To have that kind of property on hand during the close season is a misdemeanor. The following day therefore he placed under arrest L. C. Corotto and John Bernards on a charge of violating the game laws. They were taken before Justice McCauley of Lodi, and the case was continued until Thursday of this week, as they were unrepresented by an attorney. Subsequently W. J. McGee was employed to defend them, but we understand that the defendants were advised to plead guilty, and take the lowest penalty, which is a fine of $25.

Subscribe for the Ledger. Only $2.50 a year.

Did you say Rye? Then try Jesse Moore Rye—the finest in the world.

COURSING AT SUTTER CREEK.

Bulldog vs. Greyhound.

The first coursing match that we remember to have taken place in Amador county took place in Sutter Creek last Sunday afternoon, on Tanner hill, near the Central Eureka mining ground. The match was between Jack Chinn of Jackson.

"Come over tomorrow and bring your greyhound; have imported three hares from below; will turn them loose tomorrow."

Chinn responded that he would be there on time with his dog. Accordingly, he, with a friend named Charles Archer, from Stockton, repaired to the rendezvous. Now, wherever Chinn goes his bulldog, George Washington, accompanies him. The dog was on hand on this occasion. Several sleek full-blooded hounds were gathered in Sutter from all parts of the county, prepared to participate in the sport. They had been trained to a nicety, and looked like a lot of the scrub animals on the ground were left to run at large. They were not in it. The hare took to its legs for dear life, the hounds after it in fine style. Geo. Washington waddled along behind, panting as if ready to drop out. The chase became exciting; the hare hard pressed, doubled on its track, and came within reaching distance of Geo. W., who was on the lookout for just such a snap. He caught it in his jaws in an instant, and one grab choked the life out of it.

This score for the bulldog was unanimously voted a scratch. So they paid no attention to him in the second event. Another hare was turned loose, and a pair of hounds took up the trail. George Washington, however, condescended to take a hand in it also, and managed as neatly as in the first instance, to capture and kill the second hare.

This opened the eyes of the sports. Rushing up to Chinn one of them said, "For God's sake chain up that bulldog, or he'll kill every rabbit we turn out."

So for the remainder of the day the coursing went on in orthodox fashion, Hancock's dog capturing one, Rodgers' hound another, and so on. George Washington had the mournful satisfaction of looking on and saying nothing. Anyhow, the Jackson bulldog, fat and ugly compared with his competitors, carried off the laurels of the day. The only instance on record of a dog of his build beating the regular hounds in two straight heats, and getting himself barred out for his superior skill.

A Deep Mystery.

It is a mystery why women endure Backache, Headache, Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Fainting, and Dizzy Spells when thousands have proved that Electric Bitters will quickly cure such troubles. "I suffered for years with kidney trouble," writes Mrs. Phoebe Cherley, of Peterson, Ia. "I was so weak and nervous that I could not dress myself, but Electric Bitters wholly cured me, and, although 73 years old, I now am able to do all my household work." It overcomes Constipation, improves Appetite, gives perfect health. Only 50c at D. B. Spagnoli's drug store.

DOCUMENTS RECORDED.

DEEDS.

James Jeffery to Elizabeth H. Jeffery, lot 22 bl 1 Amador, love and affection.

John W. Farron Jr. to John B. Francis, 3-10 of min under Palmer lot, Jackson, $10.

Est. of Thos. H. Hodges to Deborah S. Hodges, lot in Sutter, adjoins Gleason & Co. Amador M. Co.

T. H. E. Allen to Kohrt, F. Allen, John Ronna lot, Forest Home, and hf of s e q of s w q sec 5 t 7 n 9 e, $10.

J. D. Mason to D. L. Lasswell, and hf of s bl 2, Webb & Mason tr, Jackson, $1.

C. D. Smith et ux, to John Dynan, 5 ac adjoining Wm. Oates, $450.

PATENTS.

United States to Hiram J. Deacon, s e q of s w q sec 15 t 6 n 10 e.

United States to Chas. Neips, w hf of s w q e q of s w q sec 6 t 7 n 10 e.

MINING RECORDS.

Location notices: C. R. Richards on Last Chance mine, Plymouth; Jas. W. Martin on January q m, Volcano; J. M. McCadden on a q m in sec 31 t 7 n 13 e.

Proofs of labor: E. A. Trask on Anna Deroy m, Volcano; Anna Deroy Wetmore on Anna Deroy No. 2 and Sunbeam q m; same on Anna May placer and Anna Deroy No. 1; Andrew Quirulo et al, on West Ella m, Clinton; O. Olson et al, on Lodi q m, Volcano; same on Sunny South q m, Volcano; Jos. Garibaldi on Boardman placer, Volcano.

HOMESTEAD.

Declaration of Elizabeth Axford, lot 5 bl 14, Plymouth.

CERTIFICATE OF REDEMPTION.

Mrs. M. Sevey, lot 4 bl 28 and lot 1 bl 26, Plymouth.

JUDGMENT.

High Point Mining Co. vs. Hulda Brown et al, confirms title of debt to Blue Bell q m.

SATISFACTIONS OF MORTGAGES.

J. R. Tregloan, mort excc by J. A. Rickey et ux, s w q of n e q and n w q of a e q sec 24 t 8 n 10 e.

Partly by same, mort excc by A. S. Hartvig, lots 1 and 2 of n e q sec 6 t 6 n 11 e, and frac n e q of s w q sec 6 t 6 n 11 e, and frac s e q of s w q sec 36 t 7 n 10 e.

By same, mort excc by same, cattle, horses and chattels.

Rosalie Wenzel, excc by J. W. Violett et ux, old Pardee ranch in Jone valley.

Wm. J. McGee mort excc by Jos. E. Strinnam et ux, s e q of s e q sec 22; s w q of s w q sec 25; w q of n w q sec 26; n e q of n e q sec 27 t 7 n 13 e.

L. Marro, mort excc by Margt Richards, part of bl 23, Sutter.

If You Could Look

into the future and see the condition to which your cough, if neglected, will bring you, you would seek relief at once—and that naturally would be through

Shiloh's Consumption Cure

Guaranteed to cure Consumption, Croup, Whooping Cough, Asthma, and all Lung Troubles. Write to S. C. Wells & Co., Le Roy, N. Y., for free trial bottle.

Kerr's Clover Root Tea purifies the Blood

SUPERIOR COURT.

HON. R. C. HUST, JUDGE.

Estate of R. J. Adams—February 7 appointed for hearing of petition to set aside homestead for benefit of widow.

Josef vs. Decease vs. Chas. Carmel—Decree of divorce granted.

High Point Mining Co. vs. H. H. Brown—By consent of parties action as to S. N. Farington dismissed. Case tried. Findings awarded. Judgment for plaintiff for cancellation of contract without cost.

W. E. Spear et al vs. Scottish Union Insurance Co.—Demurrer submitted.

Chas. W. Trotter vs. Amador Gold Mine Ltd.—On petition for appointment of receiver. Defendant unrepresented. Matter heard and submitted. Maria Plerano vs. Antonio Peirano—Motion for change of place of trial continued until Feb. 1.

Estate of Mary Boardman—Martha J. Boardman appointed administrator.

Estate of Jane Sobey—William Sobey petitions for special letters of administration. Petitioner appointed, bonds fixed in the sum of $100.

Matter of application Gladys Lorraine Lessley for a writ of habeas corpus—Petition of Mollie Lessley sets forth that she is the mother of said Gladys L. Lessley; that Gladys L. Lessley is restrained of her liberty in Jackson by James C. Lessley; that she believes that Jas. C. Lessley is about to proceed to Mexico, and intends to take the child, who is an infant 11 months old, with him. Matter heard and custody awarded to the mother.

Estate of Jane Sobey—Petition of W. Sobey for probate of will. Petition sets forth that Jane Sobey died in Solano county, January 20, 1902, leaving property in Amador county as follows: Lots 1 and 12 in block 7, Jackson, valued at $3000. Lot 12 in block 7, valued at $3000. Small lot of household furniture, and money on deposit with the Realty Syndicate $300. William Sobey and Josephus Sobey are named as executors. The heirs are ready to drop out of the will. Defendant John Sobey, resident of Michigan; Mary Elizabeth Moore, Henry Sobey, Sarah Jane Bennett, Josephus Sobey, and William Sobey, all of California, and children of decedent. William J. McGee, attorney.

Estate of T. L. Culbert, jr.—Order made authorizing guardian to set certain real estate.

NEW CASES.

Estate of Pernina Smith—George Courtwright petitions for letters of administration. Estate consists of 360 acres in townships five and six, range 12 north, and range 12 east, in Sutter creek, the value of which is estimated at $1800. The heirs are Clark and George Courtwright, both sons of deceased by her first husband. R. C. Bole is attorney for petitioner. February 1 appointed for hearing said petition.

Kate Budman vs. Louis M. Budman—Suit for divorce on the ground of desertion. Parties were married in Jackson on the 11th day of May, 1900. Two days later, so the complaint alleges, the defendant wilfully and without cause deserted plaintiff. There are two children, the issue of the marriage, Louis and Martin Budman, twins, aged 17 months. Defendant is a minor, able to earn $75 per month. Plaintiff asks for $35 per month alimony, dissolution of the marriage, and for $150 for costs of suit. Caminetti & Bole are attorneys for plaintiff.

The Best Prescription for Malaria

Chills and Fever is a bottle of Grove's Tasteless Chill Tonic. It is simply iron and quinine in a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price 50c.

A Correction.

Editor Amador Ledger—I see in last week's issue of the Dispatch, an insinuation in the editorial columns, that the editor of the Ledger started the Republican in opposition to the Ledger which he had recently sold. In justice to you I wish to say that the statement is absolutely false. I know more about the starting of the Republican than any one else, and will say that I and my brother, G. D. Calvin, were the only ones responsible for the launching of that paper. Mr. Webb was never consulted, knew nothing about the matter, and never contributed one cent toward that enterprise. In short, he had no more to do with the starting of that paper than the editor of the Dispatch. If the rest of the insinuations are as wide of the truth as this one, the Dispatch editor is woefully short of ammunition for his mud battery.

HARVEY D. CALVIN.

Jackson, Jan. 27, 1902.

Sour Stomach

"After I was induced to try CASCARET, I will never be without them in the house. My liver was in the right shape, and my bowels and I had stomach trouble. Now, since taking Cascarets, I feel fine. My wife has also taken them with beneficial results for her stomach."

JOS. KREHLING, 1221 Congress St., St. Louis, Mo.

CANDY CATHARTIC

TRADE MARK REGISTERED

REGULATE THE LIVER

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sicken, Weaken, or Grip, 10c, 25c, 50c.

... CURE CONSTIPATION. ...

Holding Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York, St. L.

NO-TO-BAC Sold and guaranteed by all druggists to cure Tobacco Habit.

Notice to Non-Consenting

Land Owners.

Before the Honorable Board of Supervisors of the County of Amador, State of California.

In the matter of the petition of W. H. Glenn et al for a new public highway and road in Road No. 13, Section 14, Township 14 N., Range 12 E., and 12 E. M. D. M. The petitioners claim that the road is a public road, and that the land owners have granted a free right of way for said road over their lands. The petitioners claim that the road is a public road, and that the land owners have granted a free right of way for said road over their lands.

YOUNG AND EACH OF YOU WILL PLEASE take notice that at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Amador, State of California, held at the office and meeting room of said Board, on the 24th day of January, 1902, the report of the viewers, W. E. Down, Andrew Howard and M. Robinson in the above entitled road matter was presented, filed and read, and the hearing on said report and on said petition was held by said Board of Supervisors for Monday, February 3, 1902, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, when and where you and all other persons interested in said road may appear and be heard, and the report of said viewers recommending granting of said petition should not be adopted.

Said road commences at a point in Section 5, Township 14 N., Range 12 E., and 12 E. M. D. M. in a road now traveled whence a cedar tree 12 feet in diameter blazed and marked "X" bears North 83 degrees 30 minutes E. 26 1/2 feet distant, being about three miles Northeast of the same place in the County of Amador, California, 30 1/2 feet across the lands of the Amador County Lumber Company, P. M. Whitmore, Amador County Lumber Company, E. M. Whitmore, John Andrews, T. C. McKenzie, L. C. Barton, to a point in the eastern road at Barton's place, whence a yellow pine 20 inches in diameter, blazed and marked "X" bears North 60 degrees E. 37 feet distant.

That the general course of said proposed public road between its terminal is South 12 degrees 30 minutes West, and its total length is, as before stated, 3,465 feet, or nearly 5.77 miles.

That the land over which said road runs is described as follows: Sections 14, 15 and 16 in Township 14 N., Range 12 E., and 12 E. M. D. M. That the owners of said lands who have granted a free right of way for said road over their lands are the following: Amador County Lumber Company, John Andrews, T. C. McKenzie, L. C. Barton, to a point in the eastern road at Barton's place, whence a yellow pine 20 inches in diameter, blazed and marked "X" bears North 60 degrees E. 37 feet distant.

That the names of those who have not consented to granting said free right of way are as follows: P. M. Whitmore, L. C. McKenzie and John Ketter.

C. L. CULBERT, County Clerk of Amador County, California, and ex-officio Clerk of the Board of Supervisors of said County.

By B. R. Brees, Deputy Clerk.

LOUISA JUKA, Executrix of the estate of John Juka, deceased.

John F. Davis, Atty. for executrix. 1-17-102.

Notice to Creditors.

ESTATE OF JOHN JUKA, DECEASED.

Dyspepsia Cure

Digests what you eat.

This preparation contains all of the digestants and digests all kinds of food. It gives instant relief and never fails to cure. It allows you to eat the food you want. The most sensitive stomachs can take it. By its use many thousands of dyspeptics have been cured after everything else failed. It prevents formation of gas on the stomach, relieving all distress after eating. Dieting unnecessary. Pleasant to take. It can't help but do you good.

Prepared only by E. O. DeWitt & Co., Chicago. The $1. bottle contains 24 times the 50c. size.

Kerr's Pharmacy, Jackson.

Family Reunion.

An interesting gathering took place at the residence of Mrs. Ann Bennetts, grandmother of Mrs. Lemm of Jackson, near Amador City on Saturday last, the occasion being the 91st anniversary of that lady's birthday. All the members of the family in Amador county were present, including Mrs. T. Lemm and family, Mrs. Rule and family, Mrs. Boddian, James Rule Jr. and family, and others. Notwithstanding her advanced age, Mrs. Bennetts is active and hearty, able to do household work, and hold her own in conversation with the rest of them. In happy reminiscences and social chat a few hours passed pleasantly to all present, and the company separated, hoping to see many more such pleasant reunions.

Thousands Sent Into Exile.

Every year a large number of poor sufferers whose lungs are sore and racked with coughs are urged to go to another climate. But this is costly and not always sure. Don't be an exile when Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption will cure you at home.

It's the most infallible medicine for Coughs, Colds, and all Throat and Lung diseases on earth. The first dose brings relief. Astonishing cures result from persistent use. Trial bottles free at D. B. Spagnoli's drug store. Price 50c and $1.00. Every bottle guaranteed.

Your medicine chest is incomplete if it is not stocked with Jesse Moore "AA" Whiskey.

Pioneer Flour is the "Lily of the Valley," the "Pearl of Perfection." * Go where you will, the best saloons sell Jesse Moore Whiskey.

BORN.

HALL, Jr.—In Plymouth, January 23, 1902, to Mr. and Mrs. James Hall, a son.

MARRIED.

CASSINELLI—GIANNINI.—In Jackson, January 23, 1902, at the Catholic church, by the Rev. J. J. Gleason, Peter L. Cassinelli to Miss Mada Giannini, both of Jackson.

DIED.

GILARDI.—In Drytown, January 24, 1902, Peter Gilardi, aged 33 years.

GRAYSON.—At the county hospital, January 25, 1902, James Grayson, aged 73 years, a native of Alabama.

ONELIA.—At Jackson Gate, January 26, 1902, Peter Onelia, aged 37 years, a native of Italy.

PATTERSON.—At the county hospital, January 30, 1902, Samuel Patterson, aged 70 years, a native of Pennsylvania.

Sour Stomach

"After I was induced to try CASCARET, I will never be without them in the house. My liver was in the right shape, and my bowels and I had stomach trouble. Now, since taking Cascarets, I feel fine. My wife has also taken them with beneficial results for her stomach."

JOS. KREHLING, 1221 Congress St., St. Louis, Mo.

CANDY CATHARTIC

TRADE MARK REGISTERED

REGULATE THE LIVER

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sicken, Weaken, or Grip, 10c, 25c, 50c.

... CURE CONSTIPATION. ...

Holding Remedy Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York, St. L.

NO-TO-BAC Sold and guaranteed by all druggists to cure Tobacco Habit.

Notice to Non-Consenting

Land Owners.

Before the Honorable Board of Supervisors of the County of Amador, State of California.

In the matter of the petition of W. H. Glenn et al for a new public highway and road in Road No. 13, Section 14, Township 14 N., Range 12 E., and 12 E. M. D. M. The petitioners claim that the road is a public road, and that the land owners have granted a free right of way for said road over their lands. The petitioners claim that the road is a public road, and that the land owners have granted a free right of way for said road over their lands.

YOUNG AND EACH OF YOU WILL PLEASE take notice that at a regular meeting of the Board of Supervisors of the County of Amador, State of California, held at the office and meeting room of said Board, on the 24th day of January, 1902, the report of the viewers, W. E. Down, Andrew Howard and M. Robinson in the above entitled road matter was presented, filed and read, and the hearing on said report and on said petition was held by said Board of Supervisors for Monday, February 3, 1902, at two o'clock in the afternoon of said day, when and where you and all other persons interested in said road may appear and be heard, and the report of said viewers recommending granting of said petition should not be adopted.

Said road commences at a point in Section 5, Township 14 N., Range 12 E., and 12 E. M. D. M. in a road now traveled whence a cedar tree 12 feet in diameter blazed and marked "X" bears North 83 degrees 30 minutes E. 26 1/2 feet distant, being about three miles Northeast of the same place in the County of Amador, California, 30 1/2 feet across the lands of the Amador County Lumber Company, P. M. Whitmore, Amador County Lumber Company, E. M. Whitmore, John Andrews, T. C. McKenzie, L. C. Barton, to a point in the eastern road at Barton's place, whence a yellow pine 20 inches in diameter, blazed and marked "X" bears North 60 degrees E. 37 feet distant.

That the general course of said proposed public road between its terminal is South 12 degrees 30 minutes West, and its total length is, as before stated, 3,465 feet, or nearly 5.77 miles.

That the land over which said road runs is described as follows: Sections 14, 15 and 16 in Township 14 N., Range 12 E., and 12 E. M. D. M. That the owners of said lands who have granted a free right of way for said road over their lands are the following: Amador County Lumber Company, John Andrews, T. C. McKenzie, L. C. Barton, to a point in the eastern road at Barton's place, whence a yellow pine 20 inches in diameter, blazed and marked

NEWS OF THE PAST WEEK

Short News Items of Local Interest.

A. Chichizola III at San Francisco. Ned Taras reported to be in Austria.

PIONEER FLOUR always has been and still is the best. 4-617

Home-made bread, pies, cakes, for sale; Mrs. Jennie Larson, Summit st.

D. S. Hirschberg, former superintendent of the Preston school, has taken up the practice of law.

Oranges and lemons direct from the orchard at any old price at Caminetti's central market.

The balance of odds and ends in wall paper remnant: sold at 5 cents per roll the White House.

The Ledger acknowledges complaints of cake on account of the assassinelli—Giannini wedding.

A. H. Kuhlman and wife returned on Wednesday, after a two weeks' visit to relatives in Napa.

W. R. Williams of Wild Goose valley, the well known sheep-raiser, has set up his interest for $15,000.

Ladies' Aid Society of M. E. church meets Wednesday, February 5, at 2 p. m., with Mrs. N. J. Hosking.

No. 822, the winning ticket in Henry Bell's prize contest, was held by A. Bamier, of the Louvre restaurant.

Only a few odds and ends on hand, I close them out for hardly nothing. A lot of shirt waists, all wool, 50 cents the White House.

S. N. Knight, the well-known foundryman of Sutter Creek, is at Byron for the benefit of his health. He has been there over two weeks.

Frank Molovich is doing nicely in Mary's hospital, San Francisco, and no further trouble from blood-poisoning is apprehended.

R. E. McConnell and family have left the house of P. Dwyer on Court street, recently vacated by Dr. Endicott, and moved into it early this week.

The Sobey residence on Broadway, from Nevada county, who moved there last week.

Ned Taras, who conducted the mpus cafe in Jackson for over a year, is reported to be in his native country, Austria. After leaving here unceremoniously, it seems he lost no time in leaving the state.

Will and Jos. Sobey returned from their early this week. After attending the funeral of their mother. They stayed for a few days to look after matters connected with the estate of deceased.

At your 50 cent premium ticket. A beautiful folding bed valued at $50, in away to our customers buying $50 worth of merchandise for cash, the White House.

By the courtesy of Senator Davis we received a copy of the Washington Star, containing an interview with Congressman Woods of this district on proposed establishment of a department of mines.

Ord received early this week A. Chichizola was lying critically at San Francisco. He went to the over two weeks ago. He was then very sick man. His illness has taken more threatening character since. Son Julius was summoned to the last week.

John Rodda has disposed of the mountain Spring house, which he has owned for the past five months. The house, the owner of the place, taken possession, and will make home there as of yore. We are informed that John Rodda will conduct par, in which Rodda still has an interest.

Harvey Calvin, proprietor of the old station on the Amador and Nevada road, and went to Ione the same day, returning home last Monday. He reports that he has done a fair share of business at his wayside house, and expects to get into shape for a still larger patronage by the opening of the mining season next spring.

Tuesday morning was the coldest of the season. The thermometer at the hotel registered 18 degrees above zero. In a sheltered spot the Ledger thermometer was 22 as the lowest point during the night. Fifteen degrees below zero is the utmost degree of cold experienced in Jackson since we kept a record of the temperature, which covers a period of over 20 years.

Recheniello was in Jackson Saturday, on receipt of the news of his victory in his homestead contest as the secretary of the interior, was greatly elated at his success. He has been now two years since he set upon his land as a contestant, and any means except what he earns as a day laborer, he has had his contest from the local land to the head of the interior department and won out, notwithstanding the means were arrayed against him.

The outcome serves to show that the government is with right and with right side is abundantly protected in its rights by the government in the trial of public lands.

John named McMahon—a stranger to the parts, who had been working as a ditch—was landed in jail last night. It seems he had imbibed too much, and on his way down from the jail his labors was a source of annoyance to persons living on the line of the road.

Monday he reached the Charity hospital, and no doubt mistook the place for a wayside saloon, and fled for whiskey, or in default of a cigar would do. He made himself so obnoxious that he scared the children, and school had to be dismissed. He was arrested by constable and pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace, and was sentenced yesterday term in the county jail.

Hienzes sweet, sour and salt pickles; also California olives in bulk at Caminetti's Central Market.

Our furniture, still in the lead, can sell either for cash or on easy installments, at the White House.

The Jackson Band postponed their concert which was to have been given on Sunday last to next Sunday, February 2d.

M. E. church services February 2, 1902. Subject morning sermon, "Ease in Zion;" subject evening sermon, "Choice of Moses."

No bids have been received so far for carrying the United States mail between Jackson and Volcano, and Jackson and Electra. All other routes have been covered by the bidders.

Did it ever strike you that you can buy Jesse Moore Whiskey for the same price that is paid for just ordinary whiskey?

Mr. Alexander of the American Type Founders Co., was in Jackson Wednesday interviewing the printers as to their needs in the way of material. He left for Sutter Creek and Ione the same day.

Sam Folger, between 80 and 90 years of age, brother of Postmaster Geo. C. Folger, arrived in Jackson from San Francisco by Tuesday's stage. He is the guest of his brother and family, who were not a little surprised by his appearance.

The last of this season. We sell the balance of winter clothing at one half the price. $10 and $12 all wool suits at $5 at the White House.

The Buchanan dramatic company has been playing to good houses in Jackson all the week. The performances are above the average, and well worth the price of admission. They play to-night and tomorrow night. A stove has been secured to heat the hall.

Buz Watkins, who has been in the hospital for some weeks, left that institution Tuesday, and left for Los Angeles the following morning. He is a very sick man. He has a married sister in Los Angeles, and will make his home with her.

Dr. Endicott was called early this week to Paloma, in consultation over some cases of supposed contagious disease. He found two cases of smallpox there. A strict quarantine has been established, and there is not likely to be a further spread of the contagion in our sister county. Both are very mild cases.

A large steel pipe five feet in diameter passed through Jackson Saturday, en route to the works of the Standard Electric Company's plant. It is intended to be placed at the head of the supply pipe conveying water to the wheels. It will receive the water from the tunnel. The pipe line is 24 feet in diameter, whereas this intake pipe is double that diameter.

Sunday morning was one of the coldest experienced this season. While the mercury has reached a lower point before, the cold appeared to be less penetrating than on Sunday. The ground remained frozen all day. We noticed icicles two feet long where the water had spurted from hydrants. A number of water pipes were broken around town as the result of the freezing.

A meeting has been called for next Saturday night in the supervisor's room to consider the proposition of taking up all the two-inch pipe laid on the Ione road last summer for sprinkling purposes, and selling the same; also all the water tanks erected for the same purpose. Of course the supervisors alone have power to dispose of this property, but there is not likely to be any opposition to such a course. The idea is to turn it into money, and use the money for treating the road with oil.

Dr. Endicott on Tuesday evening missed his purse, which contained $140 in gold. As soon as the money was missed there was quite a stir, a number of friends joining with the doctor in trying to ferret out the whereabouts of the coin. After several hours search the purse, with its contents intact, was finally found in the dining room where he had partaken of supper.

The Boardman Estate.

Mrs. Laura De Forco Gordon was in Jackson Saturday, having business in the superior court in relation to the Boardman estate, involving the title to 110 acres in the vicinity of Volcano. The matter has been in an unsettled condition for nearly 25 years. The land was taken up by Boardman and several others as mining ground. It was worked out in early days, and no mining has been done on it since its last location. It is no longer valuable for mining purposes, but stands on the records of the land office as mining ground, an application for patent having been filed in Sacramento, but never perfected. It is now sought to be entered as a homestead, but before this can be done the mineral must be proved off. The distinguished lady attorney has been employed to straighten out this tangle, and quiet title to the property for the Boardman heirs.

Disease Among Indians.

An epidemic of measles has been prevalent among the Indians in the vicinity of Pine Grove for several weeks. It is reported as measles, but whether it is identical with that disease as known among the white population we are unable to say. The mother of Indian George—a well known character around the Grove—died at the Indian camp near Pine Grove of this complaint about three weeks ago. Thereafter the afflicted ones were removed to the reservation near New York ranch. Indian Jim died there about a week ago, and his wife—known as Louisa—is also very sick from the same complaint at the reservation.

Stops the Cough and works off the Cold

Laxative Bromo-Quinine Tablets cure a cold in one day. No Cure, no Pay. Price 25 cents.

Mrs. C. Harker died suddenly in the hospital this morning, aged 77 years. She remains will be buried in Volcano.

GREAT TIMES AT GREEK CHURCH.

Bishop Tikon and Rev. Sebastian Dabovich Present—The debt on the Parsonage wiped out.

The past week has been a memorable period in the history of the Greek church of Jackson. The Rev. Sebastian Dabovich came up Thursday of last week, and on Saturday Bishop Tikon, head of the church on the Pacific coast, arrived. The occasion of the visit of both these distinguished prelates was the anniversary of St. Savva, the patron saint of the local church. The reverend Dabovich on Saturday afternoon repeated his lecture on the immortality of the soul, and on Sunday afternoon lectured on the evidences of the truth of Christianity. On Sunday morning, also on Monday morning, Bishop Tikon celebrated high mass. He was arrayed in the gorgeous sacerdotal robes, resplendent with jewels. The like of these sacred vestments has never before been seen in Jackson. He also conducted service Sunday evening, a crowded audience greeting him on each occasion. The Slavonians generally were highly pleased at the visit of the bishop, the second time he has been in Jackson, and they turned out en masse to greet him. The Serbian flag or shield, which was sent as a gift to the church by the Prince of Montenegro, over a year ago, was raised for the first time on this long-to-be-remembered festival. As a result of the visit of these high officials, the debt on the newly built parsonage, amounting to about $300, has been wiped out. This debt has been a source of anxiety, and an effort was made to liquidate it. With contributions and proceeds of lectures $150 was raised, and the balance was furnished by enthusiastic members, so that the incubus will trouble the church no more. Bishop Tikon and Rev. Dabovich left for San Francisco Tuesday morning. The latter expects to be here again in six weeks.

Obituary.

Peter Onelia, after a lingering illness of miners' consumption, died at his home at Jackson Gate on Sunday last. He had been incapacitated from doing any work from this insidious disease for over 13 months. He had worked in the mines around Jackson for a number of years, and the powder smoke and other conditions incident to his calling brought on the fatal malady. He went to San Francisco in the early stages of the disease in the hope of finding relief at the hands of physicians there, but they held out no hope of permanent benefit. He was only 37 years of age, when his career was cut short by death. He leaves a young wife and three small children, who would have been totally unprovided for were it not for the fact that before the commencement of his fatal sickness he had the foresight to take out a policy in the New York Life Insurance Company for $2000. He was also a member of the Italian Benevolent Society and of the Ancient Order of Druids. The funeral took place on Tuesday afternoon, under the charge of the Italian Society. Services were held in the Catholic church, the Rev. Father Gleeson officiating. It was the largest funeral witnessed in Jackson for a long time. Members of the Italian Society from all parts of the county attended. The lodge of Druids from Sutter Creek attended in a body out of respect for their departed brother. The procession of vehicles that followed the remains to the grave was fully a quarter of a mile long, and the number of those on foot was also unusually large.

A Quiet Wedding.

At an early hour last Sunday morning, in the Catholic church of Jackson, Peter L. Cassinelli and Miss Mada Giannini both of Jackson, were united in matrimonial bonds. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. J. Gleason, in the presence of a few intimate friends and relatives of the contracting parties. The bride's sister, Miss C. Giannini, was bridesmaid, and Alex Eudey best man. Shortly after the ceremony the happy pair were driven to Ione, and there took the train for a wedding tour, which will include San Francisco, Los Angeles, and other places of interest. They are expected to return in about two weeks.

The bride is a daughter of Domenico Giannini, and is conceded to be one of the most charming young ladies of Jackson—comely and attractive in person, pleasing in manner, and amiable in disposition. The groom is the well-known fruit dealer of Jackson, who has been established for several years in the fruit and vegetable business near the Broadway bridge. The Ledger extends its congratulations to the couple so auspiciously launched on wedded life, and hopes that life's journey for them may be one of perpetual sunshine and happiness. Upon their return, Mr. and Mrs. Cassinelli will occupy a cottage on Stump street, near Marre's hotel, which has been nicely fitted up for their reception.

New Harness Shop.

By advertisement in another column it will be seen that Charles Freeman and P. Picardo have commenced business in the saddle and harness line. They have secured premises on Water street, opposite Ginocchio's warehouse. They will keep a full supply of ready-made harness and saddles, and do repairing of all kinds. Both young men have had considerable experience in this line of business. A harness shop has been a desideratum in Jackson for some time. There is a good field here for such an enterprise, and we bespeak for the new firm the full support and confidence of the public in their particular department.

Blown to Atoms.

The old idea that the body sometimes needs a powerful, drastic, purgative pill has been exploded, for Dr. King's New Life Pills, which are perfectly harmless, gently stimulate liver and bowels to expel poisonous matter cleanse the system and absolutely cure Constipation and Sick Headache. Only 25c at Spagnoli's drug store.

Give us daily some good bread.

Pioneer Flour makes the best. 4-617

OUR NEIGHBORING TOWNS

Correspondents to the Amador Ledger.

A Basket Social at Plymouth—Items from Willow Springs, Aukum and Amador City.

PLYMOUTH, January 29.—A basket social was held in the M. E. church last Friday evening, the proceeds being for Rev. Jagers. The following program was rendered: Selection, orchestra; solo, Fred Ball; recitation, Naomi Thoms; selection, orchestra; solo, Mabel Wheeler; recitation, May Easton; instrumental duet, Charlie Ball and Blanche Bennett; recitation, Mabel Gerrans; song, little folks. After which the baskets were auctioned by Wm. Scoble, each bringing a goodly price.

While Wm. McCormick and Mrs. Adams were out for a drive one day last week, the horse suddenly became frightened near the Cruson place, Shenandoah Valley, and running the buggy up on a bank, threw the occupants out. The buggy was smashed, but no other serious damage was done. Miss Eva Ball is here visiting relatives.

Miss Grace Wren of Quartz Mountain, is in town staying with her aunt, Mrs. G. L. Clark, who has been quite sick for the past month, is improving daily.

The Rebekahs will install their officers Thursday night. OMEGA.

WILLOW SPRINGS.

We are having very cold weather in this vicinity. Rain is much needed, for the crops are progressing very slowly.

Henry White has just arrived from Sacramento, where he has been with a load of swine.

There was a dance at Taylor's last Saturday night in honor of Mr. Taylor's birthday. Taylor & Littlefield were musicians. It was largely attended, and enjoyed by one and all.

John Brown is very busy cutting pine wood. This cold weather plays mischief with the wood piles.

George H. Brown is in the mountains snowbound.

Mrs. M. J. Purcell and daughter are visiting in Amador.

The Bootjack mine is running, with Samuel Walker as engineer, Avery Colburn, underground boss, and Ernest Willard foreman. They are running a first-class boarding house at the mine, Ed Graves first cook.

George Roberts and Bert Littlefield have a contract for 50 cords of wood for the Bootjack mine.

Mr. Vanderpool is contemplating selling his ranch to a beet factory.

Mrs. Littlefield will be home from the bay city in a short time.

Mrs. Sarah Stephens sold a match team for $250.

Mr. Cummings is improving under the care of Dr. W. A. Norman.

Jabez Ninnis, while returning from the mine, was thrown from his horse, on account of his horse becoming frightened. Fortunately no bones were broken; the loss was a derby hat.

ROSEBUD.

AUKUM.

AUKUM, January 27.—Newt Perry and family have returned home, after a two weeks' stay in Oakland with Mr. Perry's mother.

Mrs. Snider of Alameda, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Veniwitz.

Willis Carter left our little burg for Shenandoah Valley, where he is going to work for Chas. Votaw.

Ella Hughes, who is working in Oleia for Mrs. J. Votaw, paid her parents a visit Sunday.

Louise Seely got four of his fingers cut quite badly with barb wire last week.

Mrs. Chas. Bell and daughter Daisy, Mrs. McSwain, went to Church Union to visit the latter's sister, Mrs. J. Roades.

Mr. Cole and wife, from the east, are here visiting Mrs. Cole's brother, Jas. McCulla.

Miss Bertha Bell was staying with Mrs. Burns last week.

The surprise party given at Mrs. Ada Perry's on the 18th was largely attended. The evening being spent by music, playing games and singing. All report having had an enjoyable time.

NOME.

AMADOR CITY.

AMADOR CITY, January 28.—Charles Williams of San Francisco, formerly a student of the Amador public school, called on friends here last week.

Miss Gertrude Freshman of Stockton, spent a few days of last week with her father.

Wm. and Florence Taylor spent Sunday in Jackson with relatives.

Mrs. Clark and Elsie spent a few days of last week at the home of Mrs. M. B. Church.

Mr. Mann, who was injured at the Fremont last Friday, is again able to be out.

Mr. Hall, the grand installing officer of the Macabees, was here Friday evening. After the business of the lodge was disposed of, they all repaired to the lower room and partook of a dainty lunch.

George Wrigglesworth returned Saturday, after a few days' visit in Sacramento.

Fred Williamson, who has been in Corea for the past three years, returned last Thursday, and was gladly welcomed by his old friends.

Mrs. Burchett will preach a memorial sermon Sunday, February 2, for Jas. Jeffrey, who recently died at Pacific Grove.

W. H. Coleman, who has been quite sick for a few weeks, left Tuesday last for his home in Gilroy. It is hoped by all that he may soon be able to return and take up his duties here as principal of our school. The vacancy caused by his absence is being filled by Miss E. LOIS.

A SUCCESSFUL PERFORMANCE.

The Presentation of Lynwood for the Benefit of St. Augustine's Church.

The presentation of the drama of Lynwood by the Jackson Historic Club in Love's hall last Saturday evening drew forth a well-filled house. This was not only because the performance was given for a worthy object, namely, the benefit of St. Augustine's Episcopal church of Jackson, but also because the performers were all local amateurs, except Byron Allison, who has had some experience as a professional actor. The players worked hard for several weeks in rehearsing for this event, and while the drama, consisting of five acts, was thought to be a rather heavy piece for amateurs, they all acquitted themselves creditably. The night was bitterly cold, and this militated against the comfort of both performers and audience. It would be out of place to give special prominence to any of the participants. Their services were freely and voluntarily tendered to help along a worthy cause, and it is pleasing to add that their efforts in this behalf were substantially rewarded. The cast of character was as follows:

Lucille Carlyle..... Miss Hilda Clough.
Kate Wilmarth..... Miss Loretta Meehan.
Col. Victor Ransdell..... Mr. Byron Allison.
Judge Carlyle..... Dr. L. E. Phillips.
Capt. Rensome..... Wm. M. Peck.
Edwin Carlyle..... Dr. J. E. Wilson.
E. E. Carter..... W. Caldwell.
Joe (servant)..... Jas. Jay Wright.
Pat (sentinel)..... Dr. P. B. Allen.

All the reserved seats were sold long before the opening of the doors. After the performance a social dance was given, and tripping of the light fantastic was indulged in until 3 o'clock. Those who took part in the performance were treated to an excellent supper at the National hotel dining rooms after the play. There was a substantial sum realized for the benefit of the church after defraying all expenses, but the exact amount we are unable to state.

We have since learned that the performance netted $87 for the church.

Minus His Checks.

Early this week three men named Fitzpatrick, Oscar Beck, and a colored man named Jackson, came down from the upper country, where they had been employed on the ditch. All of them had considerable money in the shape of checks when they struck camp at Jackson. Like most of the men who have found work on the ditch, they were all devotees at the shrine of Bacchus and it was not long before they had filled up in good shape. Fitzpatrick had $400 in checks about him; Beck had $266 in five checks of the Standard Electric Company. The darkey had a smaller amount. After doing the town, they finally got to bed Monday night, Beck and Jackson occupying the same room. Fitzpatrick put up elsewhere. Next morning Beck discovered that his checks were missing. Constable Kay took up the matter, but could find no trace of the money. No attempt had been made to cash any of the checks at the business houses. The bank was notified to stop payment of the paper if presented, and there is no probability that any one save the rightful owner can realize on them. Jackson was arrested on suspicion and placed in jail, but nothing of an incriminating nature could be found, and he was released. Fitzpatrick on hearing of his friend's loss, found his checks still clinging to him, but he lost no time thereafter in securing Wells Fargo money orders on San Francisco payable only to himself.

High School Class.

Young people who wish to take up an advanced course of study will be interested to learn that Prof. Geo. W. Wright, formerly principal of the science department in the Meadville high school, is organizing a class in high school science. The course of study will probably include algebra, Latin, history, English literature and civil government. The class will begin a three months' term as soon as a sufficient number of pupils have been enrolled. Tuition, five dollars per month in advance. For further information call at the office of Jas. Jay Wright, Searcher of Records, Spagnoli building, Jackson, Cal.

A Peculiar Accident.

A few days ago Dan Bono of Drytown, while hunting, met with a peculiar and distressing accident. A quail flew from a covey and Dan was following it with his gun to get a bead on it, when his ear encountered a small dry branch on a limb, the end of which entered the right ear, driving the drum into the head.

His attending physician does not know what the result will be, as the injury is a very bad one.—ECHO.

Uncalled-for Letters.

Letters remaining unclaimed in the Jackson, Cal., Postoffice, for the week ending Jan. 31, 1902:

Teresa Bacigalupi Jack Benson
Mrs. Maudie A. Bridge
Luice Pietro Fisa
Marie Miles
Nick Finnman
Joseph Thierio
Jan Zivanovich Stefan Corcoran

G. C. FOLGER, Postmaster.

Arrested for Forgery.

A man named W. F. Aldrich was arrested by Sheriff Gregory last night, on a charge of forgery committed in Sacramento in November last. He has been in Jackson gambling ever since November, and went by the name of Wilson. A card was sent up to the sheriff's office some time ago, giving a description of the wanted man. It sets forth that he is 34 years of age, 6 feet high, weighs 180 lbs., curly hair. The officers got the idea that he answered the description, but telephoned for further description relative to a certain scar diagonally across his wrist. He is said to have committed forgery in Utah, also in Reno, but got out of these through his father, who is reported to be wealthy. Max Fisher is expected here to-night or to-morrow, to take the prisoner to Sacramento.

Child Worth Millions.

"My child is worth millions to me," says Mrs. Mary Bird of Harrisburg, Pa., "yet I would have lost her by a croup had I not purchased a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure." One Minute Cough Cure is sure cure for coughs, croup and throat and lung troubles. An absolutely safe cough cure which acts immediately. The youngest child can take it with entire safety. The little ones like the taste and remember how often it helped them. Every family should have a bottle of One Minute Cough Cure handy. At this season especially it may be needed suddenly. Kerr's Pharmacy, Jackson.

Mr. A. Lubamier, preparing for future days, took the beautiful lounge at the White House.

ROYAL Baking Powder

Most healthful leavener in the world. Goes farther.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO., NEW YORK.

Passing of P. R. Dick.

The death of P. R. Dick, a prominent citizen of Acampo and a member of the G. A. R., died at his home near that place at 3 o'clock Monday morning. Death was due to neuralgia of the stomach, with which disease he had been suffering for two weeks. He was aged 55 years and 1 day, a native of Iowa, but came to California some fifteen years ago, where he has been engaged in farming. He leaves a widow and six children, two daughters and four sons.—Stockton Independent.

Deceased lived in this county for several years in the vicinity of Pine Grove. He was a brother of John R. Dick of Slabtown, one of the pioneer residents of this section.

It Girdles the Globe.

The fame of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, as the best in the world, extends round the earth. It's the one perfect healer of Cuts, Corns, Burns, Bruises, Sores, Scalds, Bolls, Ulcers, Felons, Aches, Pains and all Skin Eruptions. Only infallible Pile cure. 25c a box at D. E. Spagnoli's drug store.

MINING NEWS.

CENTRAL EUREKA.—Twenty stamps, not ten as reported last week, are being added to the milling capacity. This will make 40 stamps in all. The work is being pushed as fast as circumstances will permit. It will probably be a couple of months before the additional stamps are ready to drop. Large bodies of low grade ore exist in the levels already opened, and mixed with the smaller quantity of high grade rock can be made to pay. Hence the need of more milling capacity. The mine is looking well. In fact the prospects of both mines on Sutter hill—the Central and South Eureka—never looked better than at present. A modern 40-stamp mill at the South Eureka is among the probabilities next spring.

AMADOR-PHOENIX.—Tuesday last, Judge Rust, S. G. Spagnoli, Dr. A. M. Call and L. J. Fontenrose, who are all heavily interested in this property, paid a visit to the mine. The mill has not been started on the clean rock, as the quantity on the dump—about 60 tons—is not enough to warrant starting. Some rock that is being taken from the depth of 100 feet shows free gold. The ledge has widened out to five feet at the bottom of the drift. They are drifting east and west on the ledge. The mill is in readiness to start up, and in a few days a test crushing of the ore will be made.

KIRKWOOD.—This company is about to be reorganized, for the purpose of crosscutting west for a ledge which, in the opinion of many, exists in that direction.

The Mitchell mine has had to shut down frequently during the week, owing to the severe frost freezing the motive power, which is water.

David Fisher and John McKelvey are developing the McKenzie mines on the Rabbit Ridge lode. At seventy-five feet in depth the ledge is seven and one-half feet wide, and assays over $10 per ton. They have an arastra running continuously to prove the actual free milling value of the ore.

Mr. Lewis of San Francisco, was a visitor to the Spagnoli mine this week, getting the necessary data for the proposed new machinery for hoisting, pumping and milling equipments.

ask your dealer for them

To Cure A Cold In One Day

Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets. All druggists refund the money if it fails to cure. E. W. Grove's signature is on each box. 25c.

Carbondale Bridge Completed.

We are pleased to be able to state that the bridge near Carbondale is at last completed. The material commenced arriving on the ground two weeks ago, and as soon as it was all there, the contractor, C. W. Swain, went to work with a sufficient force of men to complete the structure in four days. It is 15 inches higher than the old bridge, thereby allowing much

